Start Date: Immediate openings

Organization:

Alpha House is a non-profit charitable organization that has supported women and children leaving abusive relationships for over 30 years. Join the Alpha House Project Board of Directors

Alpha House Project is seeking passionate and committed volunteer board members to support our mission of empowering families impacted by family violence. Board members play a vital role in providing leadership, advocating for the organization in their communities, and helping secure the resources needed to advance our work.

We're looking for individuals who:

- Believe in the power of strong board leadership.
- Bring experience in disciplines such as PR, fundraising, HR, finance, etc. along with a commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion.
- Are willing to actively engage as advocates, ambassadors and connectors for Alpha House.

Board Member Expectations:

- Attend monthly in-person board meetings (third Wednesday of each month).
- Commit approximately 4 hours per month.
- Understand and support Alpha House's mission, programs, and financial goals.
- Participate on a committee or task force.
- Leverage your network and lived experience to support our mission.
- Engage in learning opportunities to deepen their understanding of the community we serve and challenges they face.
- Respect and elevate diverse voices and perspectives around the board table.

To achieve our mission and create lasting impact, Alpha House is seeking board members who bring diverse perspectives, professional expertise, and lived experience. We are expanding our recruitment beyond existing networks to build a board that reflects our commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion—both in composition and in culture.

This is an opportunity to lend your leadership to a cause that matters: helping women and children rebuild their lives free from violence. As a board member, your voice, network, and influence can help shape the future of our organization—and the futures of the families we serve.

This is a volunteer position. If you're looking to make a meaningful impact, we'd love to hear from you.
